An outline of the licence terms are:per month that can be increased to €10,000 subject to certain criteria 2 being met as well as certain loss limitsThe ability to increase this further to €30,000 for 1 per cent of 2 customers subject to enhanced due diligence and certain loss limitsDeposit limits until customer verification processes are completeMaximum annual bonus per 2 customer of €100The inclusion of certain responsibility requirements by the licence holderThe licences have been issued with immediate effect.The granting 2 of the licences to GVC's four sports brands in Germany is in-line with GVC's strategic ambition of operating in regulated 2 markets and will enable it to build on its leading position in the German market. Following implementation, GVC estimates that 2 Group EBITDA will be reduced by up to £40m1 on an annualised basis.Shay Segev, CEO of GVC commented:"The award of 2 these licences is great news for GVC, bringing the clarity and certainty that we have long sought for sports-betting in 2 Germany. Combined with the recent Tolerance Policy we can now look confidently to the future, building on our position as 2 a market leader by delivering an unparalleled, innovative experience for our German customers. The much-anticipated regulation of online gaming in 2 Germany re-enforces GVC's position as the most globally regulated and responsible operator in our industry."
