PayPal Roulette Online roulette casinos that accept PayPal Greg Walker

Greg Walker 03 Dec 2024

So, you want to play some online roulette for real money and you have a PayPal account handy.

Can you make a deposit at an online casino using PayPal?

Yes.

Here's a list of roulette casinos that I've found that accept PayPal as a payment method:

PayPal roulette casinos.

Rank Casino Rating Payment Methods Payout Time Links No casinos available :(

How long do PayPal deposits take?

They are instant.

As soon as you've logged in to PayPal from the casino you're depositing at and confirmed your deposit amount the funds will appear in your casino account.

It really is as easy as you had hoped. It's just as quick and straightforward as it is to deposit with your debit/credit card (if not even easier because you do not have to enter any long card numbers).

How long do PayPal withdrawals take?

Usually within 24 hours.

I know, what more can you ask for? Although most casinos say "up to 24 hours", it's usually within 2 or 3. There have even been times where my PayPal withdrawal came through almost instantly, as it only took about 5 or 6 minutes for the PayPal email notification to hit my inbox.

All in all, PayPal is up there as one of the fastest withdrawal methods. It's just as speedy as other popular online wallets, such as Neteller and Skrill.

Note. Over recent years I've become accustomed to the flexibility and control that comes with using bitcoin, so I now use that instead of online wallets whenever possible.

Why don't all online casinos accept PayPal as a deposit option?

Back in 2001 PayPal was an accepted banking method at virtually every online casino. It was just as prevalent as credit cards are today.

However, in 2002 eBay bought PayPal for $1.5 billion, and they subsequently moved away from being a big payment processor for gambling companies. I'm assuming that this was a business decision to help avoid running in to legal issues (whatever they may be), or avoid any shady companies that could end up causing more regulatory problems than they were worth. As a result, PayPal scaled back their services in this area, much to the dismay of many recreational gamblers. These days PayPal still works with a number of gambling and casino sites, but primarily those based in Europe and have a license with the Malta Gaming Authority or Great Britain Gambling Commission. So that pretty much works in our favor anyway.

Are there any US friendly casinos that accept PayPal?

I'm afraid not. You can try searching through all the US roulette sites out there, but I'm 99.99% sure you'll be wasting your time.

PayPal is currently only a viable deposit method if you live in Europe. So if you're from the UK (like me), you'll have the maximum choice of PayPal-accepting online casinos to choose from.

Will PayPal always be an option?

I don't see why not.

Online gambling is a perfectly legitimate business, so if they're dealing with trusted companies it wouldn't make much sense to stop offering their services in the online gambling sector entirely.

In my honest opinion, PayPal is here to stay for depositing to and from online roulette casinos. I'm going to keep using it – simply because it remains as a super quick and easy way to fund my account.

The difference with this live dealer casino game is the fact that there is no dealer. Auto Roulette is not created to be a sociable game – it's there for high rollers who want to play their games as fast as possible. This game is a VIP game suited to all stakes, but VIP's can place big bets of up to 20,000 a time. Surprisingly, the minimum chip bet is just 0.20 which we weren't expecting from a high roller roulette game.

Auto Roulette games plays to standard European roulette rules and features 37 pockets and a single zero. If you've played roulette before you will know that there are numbers 1 to 36 on a European table. The usual bets you can expect can be found too, with the biggest payout being with the straight up bet which is 35 to 1.

When it comes to placing your bets, the chip denominations are placed to the lower of your screen. Drag those chips and drop them where you'd like to place your bet and watch the wheel automatically shoot a ball onto the wheel to produce a winning outcome. Players can view the table and wheel from multiple angles.

Auto Roulette has many similarities to other online roulette games, but the big difference is the ability to place mega stakes. Your screen will house a display where the recent numbers of the wheel can be found – to help you make your next bet decision. The game may look virtual, but the roulette wheel is real.

There's a house edge of 2.70% with Auto Roulette.

different countries trying to claim it as their own. However, despite all these pretenders to the throne, it would seem that the game of chance we all love so much today began its life in 17th century France. Or rather, Paris. At that time and in that place, the game was known as the 'little wheel'.

Yet just because this roulette game is
