In Spanish, "caro" means "expensive" or "dear" when referring to a person, while "carro" means "car" or "cart." The difference lies in the meanings and usage of the words. "Carro" has different meanings depending on where you are.

Adolescente de 17 años espera en la lista de espera del servicio de identidad de género del NHS durante más de tres años

In 2024, a 17-year-old adolescent named Chase was referred to the gender identity service of the NHS by a general practitioner.

"At the beginning, when I entered the waiting list, it was a bit easier to face", says Chase to Hannah Moore. "Because I was like, OK, now I feel terrible and my mental health is really bad, but there is something in the system".

Nevertheless, the first appointment never came.

"It's been about a year and a half and I thought, I will never be seen by anyone. This has made me feel much worse, because I was like, I really tried, and there is no one to help me".

This year, Chase received a letter informing him that he was now too old for the youth service and would have to join the adult waiting list in his place.

After more than three years on the waiting list, Chase has not received any support related to gender in the NHS. He is one of the thousands of young people who are still waiting.

This month, the review report of the gender identity service of the NHS in England, carried out by Dr. Hilary Cass, was published. The journalist from The Guardian, Amelia Gentleman, reports to Moore about the concerns raised in the report and what Cass believes should happen next.

Dr. Aidan Kelly, who previously worked at Tavistock clinic, reflects on the review by Cass and what would be a service that focuses on the well-being of children.

The name has been changed to protect identity*
