British crime drama television series

Vera is a British crime drama series based on the Vera Stanhope series of novels by Ann Cleeves. First broadcast on ITV on 1 May 2011, it stars Brenda Blethyn as the principal character, Detective Chief Inspector Vera Stanhope.

The thirteenth series is set to start broadcast on 7 January 2024.

Premise [edit]

Vera is a nearly retired detective chief inspector of the fictional Northumberland & City Police, who is obsessive about her work. She plods along in a dishevelled state but has a calculating mind and despite her irascible personality, she cares deeply about her work and colleagues. She often proves her superior skills by picking up small errors in her team members' thought processes. Vera forms a close relationship with sergeants Joe Ashworth and Aiden Healy.[1]

Production [edit]

The series is filmed in Newcastle upon Tyne and throughout Northumberland in North East England. Locations include Gateshead, North Shields, Whitley Bay, Amble, Warkworth, Alnmouth, Bamburgh, and Holy Island.[2] The farmhouse used for the exterior shots of Vera's home is located on the Snook, part of Holy Island at or grid reference .[3]

"Hidden Depths", "Telling Tales" and "The Crow Trap" from the first series, as well as "Silent Voices" from the second series, are based on novels of the same names by Ann Cleeves. The episode "Sand Dancers" from the second series was due to be broadcast on 13 May 2012.

However, the episode was pulled from the schedule as its storyline was about a soldier's death in Afghanistan and it coincided with news of two servicemen dying there.[4]

In August 2012, Vera was renewed for a third series of four episodes, with both Brenda Blethyn and David Leon confirmed as returning for the new series.[5] On 5 June 2014, ITV announced that a fifth series had been commissioned but that David Leon would not be returning. Kenny Doughty was unveiled as his successor. Letitia Knight was announced as executive producer for this series.[6] Cush Jumbo returned to the main cast following her two-episode guest stint in series two, while Lisa Hammond joined the cast as newcomer Helen Milton.[7]

In March 2024, ITV announced that the show had been renewed for a sixth series, with filming commencing in June. The third episode was announced to be an adaptation of the novel The Moth Catcher, which was set to be published in September 2024.[8] Noof McEwan joined the cast following the departure of Cush Jumbo.[9] On 14 January 2024, while attending the TCA Press Tour, Blethyn confirmed that Vera was renewed for an eleventh series. Production for series 11 began in April 2024 and new episodes began airing in 2024.[10] In March 2024, ITV had announced that the thirteenth series was renewed with filming commenced in mid-May. It will feature former Hollyoaks actress Rhiannon Clements as DC Stephanie Duncan.[11]

Mercados de valores europeos, asiáticos y de Nueva York sacudidos por el temor a una recesión económica en EE.UU.

Los mercados de valores en Europa, Asia y Nueva York han sido sacudidos por el temor a una recesión económica en EE.UU., ya que las acciones tecnológicas se vieron afectadas por un rendimiento inferior a las expectativas en las ganancias.

Las preocupaciones de que EE.UU. pueda estar deslizándose hacia una recesión provocaron una venta generalizada el viernes, ya que la confianza se vio afectada por la debilidad en el sector manufacturero de EE.UU. y resultados decepcionantes de Intel.

Mercados asiáticos

Las acciones japonesas sufrieron su peor día desde que la pandemia de Covid-19 sacudió los mercados en 2024; el índice Nikkei 225 de acciones de Japón cayó un 5,8% a su nivel de cierre más bajo desde enero. El índice Topix japonés más amplio cayó un 6,1%, el ASX de Australia cayó un 2,5% y el Hang Seng de Hong Kong bajó un 2,1%.

Mercados europeos

Los principales índices de acciones europeos cayeron el viernes por la mañana, con las acciones tecnológicas europeas cayendo a su nivel más bajo en más de seis meses.

Las acciones del fabricante holandés de equipos de semiconductores ASML cayeron un 6%, mientras que las acciones del rival ASM International cayeron un 10%.

Mercados de EE.UU.

"Los últimos 24 horas han visto un telón de fondo cada vez más precario para los mercados de riesgo, con un estado de ánimo 'riesgo fuera' en la espalda de otra tanda de débiles datos estadounidenses ayer, seguida de resultados tecnológicos en gran parte decepcionantes durante la noche", dijo Jim Reid, un analista de Deutsche Bank.

En Londres, el índice de acciones de blue chips FTSE 100 perdió 50 puntos, o un 0,6%, a 8,233, en las operaciones matutinas.

La venta del viernes siguió a un día difícil de negociación en Wall Street el jueves, donde el promedio industrial Dow Jones cayó un 1,2%, o casi 500 puntos. Esto fue desencadenado por datos que mostraron que la actividad manufacturera de EE.UU. cayó a un mínimo de ocho meses en julio debido a una caída en los nuevos pedidos, y un salto en el número de estadounidenses que presentaron nuevas solicitudes de beneficios por desempleo a un máximo de once meses.

Los inversionistas temen que la economía de EE.UU. pueda ser más débil de lo que los banqueros centrales en el banco de la Reserva Federal habían previsto. El miércoles, la Fed dejó las tasas de interés de EE.UU. sin cambios, pero insinuó que un recorte de tasas estaba cerca.

Los mercados financieros ahora están valorando una probabilidad del 100% de que la Fed recorte las tasas en septiembre. Un recorte de un cuarto de punto es probable, pero la valoración del mercado sugiere una probabilidad cercana al 30% de un recorte de tasas más grande de 0,5 puntos porcentuales.

Los operadores de Nueva York se preparaban para más pérdidas el viernes, con el Dow cayendo otro 0,9% en el mercado de futuros y el tecnológico Nasdaq en camino a una caída del 2%.

Las acciones de Intel cayeron más del 21% en las operaciones previas al mercado, después de que la empresa anunciara planes para recortar más de 15.000 empleos en todo el mundo mientras intenta "reescalar y reenfocar" su negocio. Las acciones de Amazon cayeron un 8,7% después de que la empresa no cumpliera con las previsiones de ventas y decepcionara a los analistas con su última perspectiva.

Mientras que las acciones caían, el oro alcanzó un récord el viernes, ya que los inversionistas se apresuraron a refugiarse en activos seguros. Los futuros de oro ganaron R$25.70 (£20.17), o un 1%, a R$2,506.40 la onza.
