What are Sports

Sports are athletic activities that involve some degree of competition.

We can formally define sports as "usually competitive physical activity which, through casual or organized participation, aim to use, maintain or improve physical ability and skills while providing entertainment to participants, and in some cases, spectators.

" Generally, sports have a set of rules, which ensures fair competition.

In addition, sports are usually outdoor activities.

Cricket, soccer, baseball, running, cycling, rock climbing, swimming, field hockey, race car driving, kayaking, and weightlifting are some examples of sports.

As you can see from these examples, sports can include teams as well as individual competitors.

Sports make you fit and keep them healthy.

It also teaches you teamwork and how to accept defeat.

Therefore, it provides all-around development, physically, mentally and emotionally.

This is why children are usually encouraged to engage in sports from a young age.

Sports is also a source of entertainment for spectators.

Some team sports like football and cricket draws large crowds to stadiums and reach a wider audience through broadcasting.

What are Hobbies

Hobbies are activities done regularly in one's leisure time for pleasure.

In other words, hobbies are something you do for fun, when you have free time or when you are bored.

We usually engage in a hobby as a way to relax.

Hobbies are completely different from your profession and occupation.

Hobbies generally include collecting items and objects, playing sports, engaging in creative and artistic pursuits, etc.

Collecting seashells, reading, writing poems, fishing, gardening, embroidery, car restoration, dancing, singing, hiking, water sports, bird watching, and cooking are some examples of hobbies. Moreover, a hobby involves an active pursuit of an interest.

In other words, a hobby always involves action.

You can gain a wealth of knowledge and skills by engaging in a hobby for a long period of time. With the development of technology, some hobbies like collecting stamps have grown less popular, while some new hobbies like playing video games and internet surfing have been created.
