What suit is the highest in poker?

No suit is "higher" or better than any other suit in most poker games, including Texas Hold'em.

That said, some other poker games do rank suits. The most common ranking of suits goes in the following order (from best to worst): spades, hearts, diamonds, clubs.

What is a straight / flush / full house in poker?

A straight is five cards in a row. For example, 9 8 7 6 5 is a straight.

A full house is when you hold both three-of-a-kind and a pair. For example, A A A 7 7 is a full house.

When it's a flush vs straight, who wins?

A flush wins versus a straight.

Flushes consist of 5 cards of the same suit, such as A J 9 7 4. Straights consist of 5 cards in a row, such as 7 6 5 4 3.

Why does a flush beat a straight? Because you have a lower probability of hitting a flush than a straight.

When it's 3 of a kind vs a straight, who wins?

A straight wins versus 3 of a kind.

3 of a kind only beats two pair, one pair, and high card hands.

What if two people have two pair?

When multiple players have two pair, the player with the better high pair wins the pot. For example, aces and twos would beat kings and queens.

If multiple players have the same highest pair, the player with the better low pair wins the pot. For example, aces and sevens would beat aces and twos.

If multiple players have the exact same two pair, the player with the better kicker wins the pot.

Lanternas norte-coreanas causam interrupções no Aeroporto Internacional de Incheon, na Coreia do Sul

Ocorreram interrupções nas decolagens e aterrissagens no Aeroporto Internacional de Incheon, na Coreia do Sul, na quarta-feira (2) por cerca de três horas antes do amanhecer, black jack jogar online consequência de lanternas lançadas pela Coreia do Norte cheias de lixo, de acordo com um porta-voz do aeroporto.

Uma das lanternas aterrissou na pista perto do Terminal 2 e das três pistas de decolagem do Aeroporto de Incheon, o que levou ao fechamento temporário das mesmas, declarou o porta-voz. A Coreia do Norte tem lançado balões com lixo na Coreia do Sul desde o final de maio, com centenas deles aterrissando na Coreia do Sul.

Várias lanternas foram avistadas nas proximidades das fronteiras do aeroporto, afirmou o porta-voz, acrescentando que isso não era a primeira vez que as operações no aeroporto – que fica a cerca de 40km da fronteira norte-coreana – eram interrompidas por balões próximos.

A interrupção dos voos domésticos e internacionais ocorreu entre as 1:46h e as 4:44h, e as pistas foram reabertas desde então, declarou a Incheon International Airport Corporation.

O volume de voos àquela hora do dia costuma ser baixo. O FlightRadar24 mostrou que oito voos de carga e passageiros chegados foram desviados para os aeroportos de Cheongju ou Jeju na Coreia do Sul durante esse tempo, e um frete da China Cargo de Xangai foi desviado para Yantai, na China.

Alguns outros pousos foram atrasados e as decolagens foram atrasadas por várias horas.

A Coreia do Norte disse que as lanternas são retaliação para uma campanha de propaganda por refugiados e ativistas norte-coreanos no Sul que regularmente enviam balões com comida, medicamentos, dinheiro e panfletos criticando os líderes do Norte.

Entre os itens carregados pelas lanternas norte-coreanas estão artigos impressos com personagens do Hello Kitty, roupas gastas e mal conservadas, e solo contendo traços de fezes humanas e parasitas, disse a Coreia do Sul.

A força militar da Coreia do Sul disse à quarta-feira que cerca de 100 lanternas caíram no chão entre terça-feira e quarta-feira, a maioria na capital, Seul, e nas províncias circundantes de Gyeonggi. A maioria delas carregava apenas pedaços de papel.
