Como você faz uma aposta no Super Bowl?

If someone else touches your tarot cards, it's generally not a cause for concern. However, some people believe that the energy of others can influence the cards and may prefer to be the only one handling them.

The frequency of getting your tarot cards read is a personal choice. Some people prefer to have readings done regularly, such as once a month or once every few months, while others may only seek a reading when they feel they need guidance or insight.

Adolescente inglés Kriss Kim sorprende al mundo del golf en su debut en el PGA Tour

The young American golfer Kriss Kim shocked the world of golf in her debut on the PGA Tour, after becoming the youngest player to pass the cut in nine years – and the youngest in history in the CJ Cup Byron Nelson, surpassing the record previously established by Jordan Spieth in 2010.

The 16-year-old player finished her first round with a score of three under par and her second round with a score of four under par in the tournament in McKinney, Texas, showing few signs of nerves that she admitted later in the 18th hole when she made a birdie putt to pass the cut.

"To be honest, being a par 5, is quite useful", she said later, according to the PGA Tour. "But, yes, well, there are always nerves when you're on the cut line."

"I really enjoyed the last few days", she added, "and being here for two more days makes it much sweeter."

Kim was introduced to golf at the age of five by her mother Ji-Hyun Suh, a former professional golfer who competed on the LPGA Tour in the 1990s and is currently her swing coach.

"(Always) I used to watch her, and then I fell in love with it myself", she told the reporters before the tournament, according to the PGA Tour.

She has enjoyed a successful amateur career, winning the Amateur Men's Championship, the European Amateur Individual Men's Trophy and the McGregor Trophy last year.

And after making the jump to the PGA Tour, Kim is now tied for 36th place, seven strokes behind the overnight leader Jake Knapp. The American scored a seven-under par 64 in her second round to beat the Englishman Matt Wallace, who is tied for second place with the American Troy Merritt.

Meanwhile, the three-time major champion Spieth, whose record Kim surpassed, could not pass the cut due to a wrist injury that he continued to fight.

Kim will play the third round at 9:20 a.m. ET on Saturday, while the final pairing of Knapp and Merritt will play at 1:55 p.m. ET.
