Another challenging experience for Hunter came when a sandstorm hit the bivouac of the runners at 1h30 in the morning, flattening the bivouac.

"It fell on us while we were sleeping", he said. "It was the only time we ran, we had to hide under this thing and lie flat on the ground to try to sleep a little."

Now back in the UK, Hunter was anxious for a good birthday dinner with his family. He said that he was lucky that his wife was a long-distance runner. "She is not sitting at home to download sports betting", he said. "She is the same"
