When you look at a football match that you wish to bet on, you may find it slightly overwhelming due to the vast number of different betting markets that are on offer. However, it doesn't actually take very long to get to grips with the different types of markets and their associated odds, and once you have done so, the betting possibilities are almost limitless.

Football Betting Markets

Whether you are betting on the Premier League, the FA Cup, the World Cup, the Champions League, La Lia, or anything other match or tournament, there are broadly speaking two types of betting markets. There are Game Odds, which is where you find all the markets relating to an individual match, and Outrights, which is where you find the markets that deal with the overall results of a league or tournament, such as who will win, be relegated/promoted, reach the final, and so on.

The bulk of the markets are listed under Game Odds. The most straightforward market is the 1X2 Full Time; this is simply a bet on a team to win or the match to end in a draw. Another very simple market is the Total Goals; this allows you to bet on there being more or less than a certain number of goals in a match. In order to enjoy additional competitive betting opportunities, many people turn to the Asian Handicap markets. Depending on the strength of each team, a handicap is issued for the game to make the odds for each side more similar. These bets can take a little getting used to, but they are very much worth investing some time in.
