The Reuters Reuters and Principles and the Reuters sports betting regulations | Manchester United previously valued underperforming Brazilian winger Antony at just £25m, before eventually signing him for £85m, according to reports. The club's recruitment and transfer policy has been heavily criticised in recent years with the department widely-expected to be overhauled once Sir Jim Ratcliffe's investment in United is confirmed.

Antony joined in last year's summer transfer window as he was reunited with former Ajax manager Erik ten Hag at the 13-time Premier League champions.

Eyebrows were initially raised over the near-£100m figure that was splashed on Antony in the closing days of the transfer window, and his performances since have failed to justify the eye-watering fee.

Antony has scored just eight goals in 62 appearances for United since joining and is yet to score or register an assist this season.

It has now been revealed a previous valuation of £25m was placed on Antony during Ole Gunnar Solskjaer's managerial reign at the club, as reported by The Athletic.

Club scouts had been monitoring the Brazilian during his time at Ajax and believed the fee resembled a player who should be available for under £30m.

However, Ten Hag's arrival largely focused recruitment efforts on his former side with Antony's name gaining universal approval, while defender Lisandro Martinez also joined from the Dutch team in the same summer.

Transfer negotiations for the 23-year-old saw United initially refuse to pay more than £60m, before eventually breaking their previous appraisal and splashing out over £20m more on the player as 'desperation' set in during the final days of the transfer window.

Antony signed a five-year contract at Old Trafford with the option of another year, with the player doing his best to push through the transfer by refusing to train with Ajax's first-team while previous negotiations were ongoing.

Manchester United eventually completed the £85.5million signing of Antony from Ajax last year. Scouts working under former United manager Ole Gunnar Solskjaer reportedly valued Antony at just £25m.

He helped United lift their first piece of silverware under Ten Hag as they beat Newcastle in last year's Carabao Cup final, but his form has come under heavy scrutiny since.

His arrival made him the second-most expensive player in the club's history - with former midfielder Paul Pogba still claiming top spot after re-joining from Juventus for £89m - and has so far failed to nail down a starting role.

Ten Hag is still enduring a nightmare right-wing scenario with his options limited to either playing Antony, unproven youngster Facundo Pellistri, or Marcus Rashford on his unfavoured wing.

Jadon Sancho was Antony's most prominent challenger for the position before he was exiled from the team.

Key events

At least 20 people have been killed and several wounded after an Israeli airstrike targeted a house belonging to the Hassan family in al-Nuseirat refugee camp in central Gaza, the al-Aqsa Martyrs hospital said on Sunday.

Witnesses said the strike occurred about 3am local time. Palestinian official news agency Wafa reported that several children were among the injured people, and that rescuers were searching for missing people trapped under the rubble.

Fierce battles and heavy Israeli bombardments have been reported in the central Nuseirat camp since the military launched an offensive on Rafah in early May.

The United Nations said 800,000 people had been "forced to flee" Israel's offensive in Rafah, the southern city where hundreds of thousands of Palestinian civilians had sought refuge from Israeli bombardments. Israel's military says Hamas militants are located there.

"800,000 people are on the road having been forced to flee since the Israeli forces started the military operation in the area on 6 May", the Unrwa chief said on X.
